OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF STAMPS IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Circular dated 20th December 1945.

No. C. 188—44-5. The Superintendent of Stamps in Mysore, Bangalore, reports that the demand constantly made by the general public for General Stamp papers being limited to certain denominations, there is an accumulation of stock of Stamps in the Central Depot for which there is little or no demand. The coupling up of two values to make up an aggregate value in the undermentioned cases is suggested with a view to reduce the stock. The Deputy Commissioners of Districts and District Treasury Officer, Bangalore, are therefore requested to kindly issue necessary instructions to the Ex-officio Vendors and Stamp Vendors within their jurisdiction for the issue of General Stamp paper in the manner suggested by the Superintendent of Stamps with minimum inconveinience to the public.
